

Dear Diary

Place yourself in the shoes of one of the characters you have just read about and write a diary entry of a key moment from the story.

Try to choose a moment in the story in which the character has plenty of interaction and emotion to share in a diary entry.

Your diary entry should be around a page in length and contain information you learnt from the book when the character was in that specific place and time.

Remember when you are writing a diary entry you are writing it from first person perspective. It is usually but not always written in present tense.

Bubbles and Clouds

Using speech bubbles and pictures of the characters, draw a conversation between two characters from the story you have been reading.

Remember a thought is drawn as a cloud and a spoken statement is drawn as a bubble.

thinking differently

Choose 3 important events from the text and explain how you would have handled them differently to the characters in the story.

Explain how it may have changed the outcome of the story in either a small or major way.

"You have three wishes"

A genie lands in the midpoint of the story you have just read and grants the two main characters three wishes.

What do they wish for and why?
Finally, would their wishes have changed anything about the story? How so?
