What Is Forgiveness?

Forgiveness (noun) is the action of forgiving or being forgiven. To forgive (verb) is to stop feeling angry or resentful towards someone for an offence, flaw or mistake. Forgiving means to change the way you feel about something that has happened or been done to you.

Jews and Christians believe that the Ten Commandments were rules given by God and that to break these rules is a sin.

Jews	Teshuvah	Yom Kippur
Jewish people believe that they have a covenant with God. This covenant means that so long as they follow the Ten Commandments , God will look after them. Jews believe that God will forgive those who repent .	Teshuvah is often used to talk about repentance in Judaism. Teshuvah means 'return.' Once you confess your sins and ask for forgiveness, you can return to God's path.	Yom Kippur is the holiest day of the year for Jews. For ten days after the Jewish New Year (Rosh Hashanah), they pray, reflect and repent for their sins from the past year. The tenth day is Yom Kippur, a day of atonement , where Jews ask for forgiveness from God.
